We can prepare a program that meets your academic needs and student interests, with centrally located campus and homestays offering a safe and welcoming environment.

We offer a tailor made programs which can last from a week to several months. Our colaborators are faculty members, professionals and specialists, highly recognized in their field and expertise. Our programs are a mix of academic, professional, cultural, social components and community integration.

The impact of our programs:

- International participants gain global competences as they investigate issues beyond their confort zone.
- Students recognize their own and others perspectives through cultural interactions
- Our students experience internationalization on campus
- Our community partners are enriched by exposure to global perspectives
